Organization

The organization of the Foundation consists of a Board, a sounding board group and a support group. It is the task of the Board to represent the Foundation.

The Board is supported by a sounding board group. This group contributes ideas to policy and its implementation. Members may advise the Board as a group or individually.

Members of the support group take an interest in and sympathize with the work of the Foundation. They support the Foundation in a variety of areas and propagate its vision and objectives in order to create a positive image of the Foundation's work and efforts. They encourage donations and the acquisition of resources and assist the Board in doing so.

The Foundation works closely with medical advisors in the Netherlands and locally in Ghana. Their task is to provide solicited and unsolicited advice on how the Foundation can best achieve its objective. In particular, the local advisors in Ghana, Dr Stephan Abongye (Director of St. Anthony's Hospital) and Justine Quist (Preventive Health Care Nurse) are indispensable links in the work of the Foundation.

General notes and accounting policies

Accounting policies

General accounting policies

In the annual account the appropriation of result is processed. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the requirements of the Dutch Civil Code.

Fiscal policies

In order to be designated as an ANBI, the institution must meet all of the following conditions:

- The institution must be fully focused on the public benefit. This must be apparent from, among other things, the statutory objective and the intended activities.
- The institution must serve the public interest with almost all of its activities. This is the 90% requirement.
- The institution is not for profit with all of its activities that serve the public interest.
- The institution and the people directly involved with the institution meet the integrity requirements.
- No natural or legal person may dispose of the institution's assets as if they were its own assets. Directors and policymakers may not have a majority of control over the assets of the institution.
- The institution may not hold more capital than is reasonably necessary for the work of the institution. Therefore, equity must remain limited.
- The remuneration for policymakers is limited to an expense allowance or minimum attendance fees.
- The institution has an up-to-date policy plan.
- The institution has a reasonable ratio between management costs and expenditure.
- Money that remains after the institution has closed down is spent on an ANBI, or on a foreign institution that focuses for at least 90% on the public benefit.
- The institution complies with the administrative obligations.
- The institution publishes specific data on its own or joint website.

The Tax Authorities concluded in a letter dated 19 October 2020 that there is no question of entrepreneurship.

The Foundation does not employ any staff.

The Foundation is not liable for turnover tax, payroll tax and corporation tax.

Article 3

The capital intended for the realization of the object of the Foundation is formed by:

- a. gifts and donations;
- b. grants and sponsorship contributions;
- c. that which is obtained by inheritance or legacies;
- d. which is obtained from activities performed by the Foundation.

Article 4 paragraph 7

The members of the Board receive no remuneration for their work.

Article 10

1. The Foundation's financial year is equal to the calendar year.
2. As of the last day of the financial year, the Board closes the Foundation's books and prepares a balance sheet and statement of income and expenditure for the past financial year.

These documents are adopted by the Board in a meeting to be held within seven (7) months after the end of the financial year and signed by all directors in evidence thereof.

3. Before adopting the balance sheet and the statement of income and expenditure, the Board may have these documents examined by an accountant to be appointed by it as referred to in Section 2:393 paragraph 1 of the Dutch Civil Code.

4. Every year, prior to the Board meeting referred to in paragraph 2 of this article, an audit committee will be composed by the Board for the determination of the balance sheet and statement of income and expenditure of the Foundation.

The audit committee consists of at least two independent persons, who are not directors of the Foundation, who will examine and assess the balance sheet and the statement of income and expenditure and then advise the Board on their findings regarding the balance sheet and the statement of income and expenditure to give.

5. The Board adopts a policy plan and periodically updates this policy plan.

The policy plan provides insight into the activities to be performed by the Foundation, the method of raising funds, the management of the Foundation's assets and how they are spent.

Article 13

1. The Board is authorized to dissolve the Foundation.
2. The Foundation will continue to exist after its dissolution insofar as this is necessary for the liquidation of its assets.
3. In the event of the dissolution of the Foundation, the liquidation will take place by the Board.
4. During the liquidation, the provisions of these Articles will remain in force as much as possible.
5. Any positive liquidation balance will be spent on behalf of a public benefit institution designated by the Dutch Tax Authorities with a similar objective.
6. After the liquidation has ended, the books and documents of the dissolved Foundation will remain in the custody of the person to be designated by the liquidators for the period determined by law.

Expert research

Given the objective of the Foundation, the fact that the Foundation is not conducting a business, the turnover of the Foundation and the fact that the Foundation is a non-profit organization; the Foundation is not obliged to file the annual accounts in the Trade Register within the Chamber of Commerce and the Foundation is not obliged to have the annual accounts audited by an accountant.

On that basis, the Board of the Foundation has decided not to file the annual accounts in the Trade Register within the Chamber of Commerce and has not commissioned an audit. Therefore, there is no auditor's report.
