General information

General information

2023 was characterized by the start of the 1st phase of the power project; the construction of the Power House. The 1st phase has been successfully completed in April 2024.

The 1st phase was possible because of the close collaboration with the management of St. Anthony's Hospital and the Ghana Switzerland Hospital Technicians.

The 2nd phase, the "Toolbox" with all necessary equipment for the maintenance work of the electrical installation is completed in 2024.

The 3rd phase concerns the installation of the new generators and the connection to Ghana's electricity network and is planned for the 4th quarter of 2025.

The Board currently consists of:
chairman - Mr. R.S. Pal
secretary - Ms. C.C.M. Timmerman – van Kessel treasurer - Mr. J.A.J.M. de Hoon

Organization

The organization of the Foundation consists of a Board, a sounding board group and a support group. It is the task of the Board to represent the Foundation.

The Board is supported by a sounding board group. This group contributes ideas to policy and its implementation. Members may advise the Board as a group or individually.

Members of the support group take an interest in and sympathize with the work of the Foundation. They support the Foundation in a variety of areas and propagate its vision and objectives in order to create a positive image of the Foundation's work and efforts. They encourage donations and the acquisition of resources and assist the Board in doing so.

The Foundation works closely with medical advisors in the Netherlands and locally in Ghana. Their task is to provide solicited and unsolicited advice on how the Foundation can best achieve its objective. In particular, the local advisors in Ghana, the Director of St. Anthony's Hospital and Justine Quist (Preventive Health Care Nurse) are indispensable links in the work of the Foundation.

Article 3

The capital intended for the realization of the object of the Foundation is formed by:

- a. gifts and donations;
- b. grants and sponsorship contributions;
- c. that which is obtained by inheritance or legacies;
- d. which is obtained from activities performed by the Foundation.

Article 4 paragraph 7

The members of the Board receive no remuneration for their work.

Article 10

1. The Foundation's financial year is equal to the calendar year.
2. As of the last day of the financial year, the Board closes the Foundation's books and prepares a balance sheet and statement of income and expenditure for the past financial year.

These documents are adopted by the Board in a meeting to be held within seven (7) months after the end of the financial year and signed by all directors in evidence thereof.

3. Before adopting the balance sheet and the statement of income and expenditure, the Board may have these documents examined by an accountant to be appointed by it as referred to in Section 2:393 paragraph 1 of the Dutch Civil Code.

4. Every year, prior to the Board meeting referred to in paragraph 2 of this article, an audit committee will be composed by the Board for the determination of the balance sheet and statement of income and expenditure of the Foundation.

The audit committee consists of at least two independent persons, who are not directors of the Foundation, who will examine and assess the balance sheet and the statement of income and expenditure and then advise the Board on their findings regarding the balance sheet and the statement of income and expenditure to give.

5. The Board adopts a policy plan and periodically updates this policy plan.

The policy plan provides insight into the activities to be performed by the Foundation, the method of raising funds, the management of the Foundation's assets and how they are spent.

Article 13

1. The Board is authorized to dissolve the Foundation.
2. The Foundation will continue to exist after its dissolution insofar as this is necessary for the liquidation of its assets.
3. In the event of the dissolution of the Foundation, the liquidation will take place by the Board.
4. During the liquidation, the provisions of these Articles will remain in force as much as possible.
5. Any positive liquidation balance will be spent on behalf of a public benefit institution designated by the Dutch Tax Authorities with a similar objective.
6. After the liquidation has ended, the books and documents of the dissolved Foundation will remain in the custody of the person to be designated by the liquidators for the period determined by law.

Expert research

Given the objective of the Foundation, the fact that the Foundation is not conducting a business, the turnover of the Foundation and the fact that the Foundation is a non-profit organization; the Foundation is not obliged to file the annual accounts in the Trade Register within the Chamber of Commerce and the Foundation is not obliged to have the annual accounts audited by an accountant.

On that basis, the Board of the Foundation has decided not to file the annual accounts in the Trade Register within the Chamber of Commerce and has not commissioned an audit. Therefore, there is no auditor's report.
